BACK TO BUSINESS

Kiwanis clubs are getting back to doing what they do best: helping their communities. In Chalmette, Louisiana, the Kiwanis Club of St. Bernard-Arabi recently honored three policeman; in Marietta, Ohio, the Kiwanis Club of Marietta announced plans to celebrate its 100th anniversary; and in Midland, Michigan, the Kiwanis Club of Midland is working with a local healthcare provider to install a playground.

If your club is back to service, be sure to share your news. Check out the PR Tips & Tools booklet to find out how to write and distribute a media release.

TIME TO CELEBRATE

Club anniversaries are a great way to introduce Kiwanis to new members — particularly if your club is making a donation or building a playground. If your club is one of many celebrating an anniversary this year, check out the ways clubs can celebrate anniversaries. And watch our most recent Lunch with a Leader video with even more tips and helpful resources.

CLUB GRANTS AWARDED

The Kiwanis Children’s Fund has awarded grants to five Kiwanis clubs, allowing them to help kids in their communities. From sharing the joy of reading to building a playground and so much more, these grants can change lives and promote the good work that members do around the world. Could your club qualify for a club grant?

LEGACY OF PLAY CONTEST TIME

The eighth annual Legacy of Play contest, sponsored by Kiwanis partner Landscape Structures (LSI), will begin August 10. The winning Kiwanis club will receive US$25,000 in playground equipment. And this year, any club that enters and continues its plans with LSI will receive a complimentary OmniSpin® Spinner valued at US$8,500. Learn more about the contest, read the rules and determine whether your club should enter!
